

The regulations for the wisconsin do-not-call list are just fine. I am tired of telemarkets calling all hours of the day and night, this has stopped them. The over whelming amount of calls we received from telemarketers was ridiculous. It is a relief to not have the phone ringing all the time. Please leave our regulations alone.